ANY MENTION OF XÀBIA INCLUDES ITS PRICELESS NATURAL AND CULTURAL HERITAGE

“Xàbia, sublime and immense”....This is how Joaquín Sorolla described the powerful impact of his first view of this marvellous coastal spot in his visit at the end of the 19th century. And to this day, Xàbia's rich history continues, faithful to its seafaring customs and above all, proud to be one of the most exceptionally beautiful and natural scenarios of the Mediterranean coast.

Framed by the capes: Cabo de San Antonio and Cabo de La Nao, it is a privileged enclave located northeast of “Costa Blanca” (White Coast), bathed by the Mediterranean and sheltered from the winds by the Montgó mountain barrier.

Its wide variety of landscapes, mild climate during the entire year and its rich cultural heritage, combined with the warm hospitality of its citizens, attract all kinds of visitors.

Throughout the centuries, the advantageous and strategic location of this small fishermen's town has benefited the settlements by the most important Mediterranean cultures which have left their mark on the different aspects of its cultural history, a legacy which is evident in this town's unique character.

Its past jointly with its peculiar physiognomy have also influenced its unique urban layout as featured by its three well-defined city districts: Xàbia Historical City Centre, Duanes de la Mar and Arenal. These three zones, which are different and yet complementary, provide a rich variety of tourist options.

The town's origins are still visible in its historical city centre where its streets and buildings evoke its fascinating past.

Duanes de la Mar, originally founded as a fishermen's neighbourhood, has become a major tourism centre with a booming services sector.

El Arenal, in the centre of the Bay, is the most popular beach for sunbathers. This district provides the perfect opportunity to do all kinds of shopping, enjoy its fun Nightlife and sample all kinds of delicious local dishes.

The splendid cultural and leisure options in addition to its tourist attractions make Xàbia an ideal destination all year round.

FUN WITH THE WHOLE FAMILY

Vacations are always the best moments to spend time with your loved ones. Xàbia has endless possibilities to make this time together unforgettable, so make the most of it, share your experiences, have fun, relax and enjoy life !!

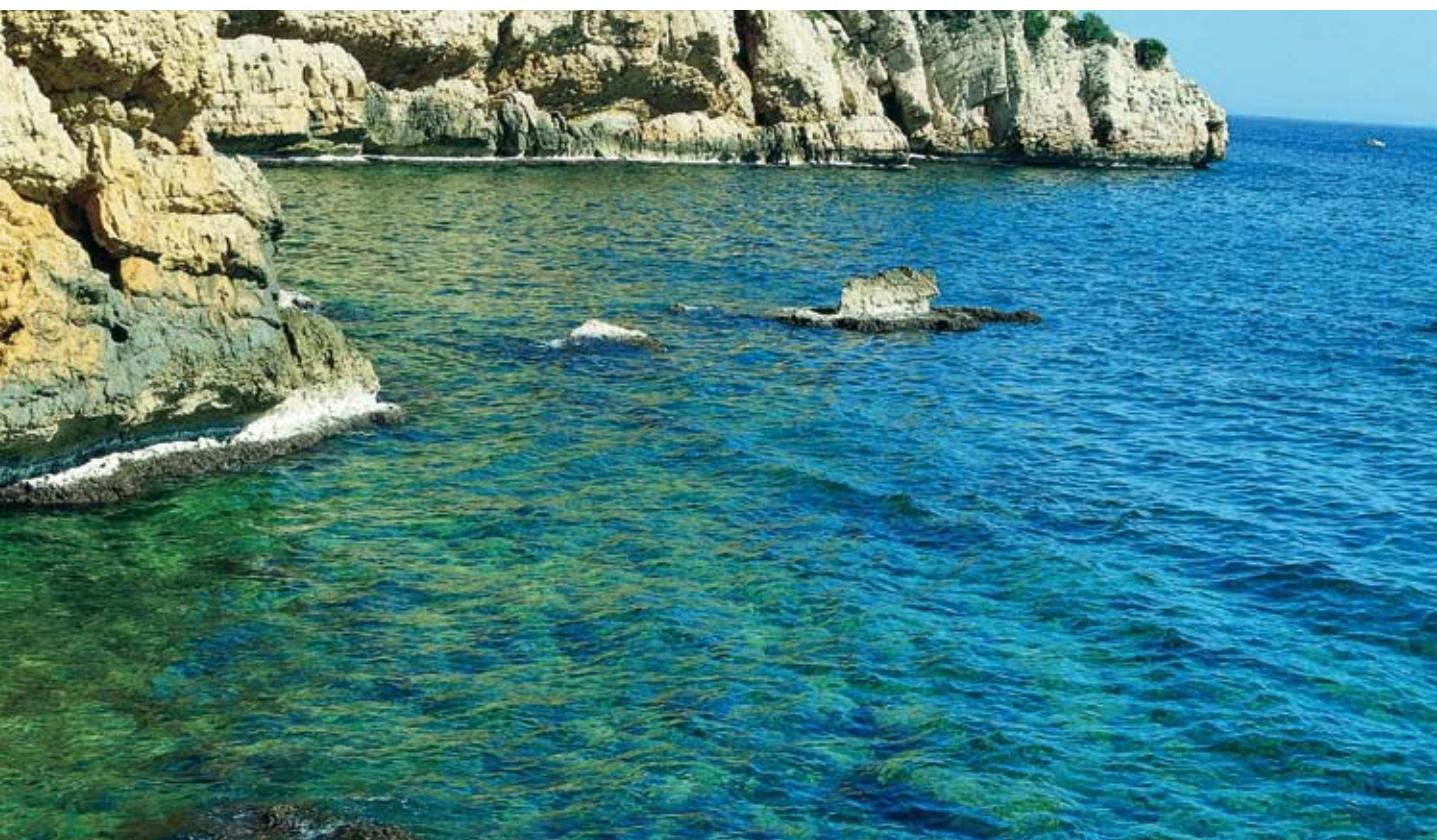

A WIDE VARIETY OF BEACHES AND COVES DOT THE XÀBIA COAST

From open beaches such as el Arenal or la Grava, which have all types of services, to small coves with crystalline water such as Cala Blanca, la Sardinera, La Barraca, Ambolo or la Granadella where rock and boulder come together to accentuate the peaceful natural beauty of the landscape.

NAVIGATE IN CRYSTAL CLEAR WATERS AND GO SCUBA DIVING AMONG POSIDONIA OCEÁNICA... (SEAGRASS)

Xàbia is an ideal place to play sports. The sea and its coasts full of cliffs, islets, small coves and sea floors with their transparent waters offer unlimited possibilities for water sports. Our coastal waters invite you to go sailing, windsurfing, fishing, scuba diving, snorkelling, water skiing and much more

STROLL THROUGH IDYLLIC SCENERY

One of the main attractive features of our beautiful coast is its exceptional panoramic views from its spectacular “Miradores” (Scenic Viewpoints).

Xàbia has views of the sea from these 15 strategically located viewpoints along its 25 km coast line. From North to South, they are: Els Molins, Sant Antoni, Punta del Arenal, Séquia de la Nòria, Cala Blanca, Caletes, Creu del Portitxol, L’Illa, La Falzía, Cap Negre & el Cap de la Nau, les Pesqueres, Ambolo, Castell de la Granadella and Granadella.

The discovery of the breathtaking scenery of the Xàbia coast is one of the many attractions which await us in this beautiful spot. Blend into this unique natural environment, which combines sea and mountain, it is an excellent alternative for hiking lovers, who can explore its luxurious plant life, stroll along the cliffs and enjoy the amazing views by means of the extensive network of paths which wind through different natural spaces; several of them are protected such as the Montgó Natural Park, the Marine Reserve of Cap de Sant Antoni, the Bay called “Bahía del Portitxol” and La Granadella Forest Park.

DISCOVER XÀBIA BY BICYCLE POWER

Explore our unique landscapes by means of numerous bike routes which have been designed for the enjoyment of this sport and they lead to places of special interest due to their natural and cultural wealth; others travel through rural areas and allow us to visit neighbouring towns.

TRAVEL BACK TO PAST AGES

As you explore the charming streets and corners of Xàbia, it reveals its history and its fishing and rural tradition. The legacy of its colourful past is reflected in its architecture. From the heart of the Medieval town up to the fishermen's neighbourhood, Xàbia conserves its ancient, rustic and monumental appearance.

The town's Medieval past is evident in every corner of the historical city centre. The old fortified town walls of the "Villa" (Town) conserve their intricate network of narrow streets with white façades, the local "tosca" sandstone and ironworks. Its emblematic building is the Fortress Church of San Bartolomé, from the 14th-16th century declared a national artistic Monument.

The Soler Blasco Archaeological and Ethnographic Museum, a former palace from the 17th Century, is an excellent opportunity to explore the town's history. Strolling around its streets, we discover other beautiful Gothic as well as Modernist style buildings, symbol of the local Bourgeoisie wealth due to the flourishing raisin trade.

Its traditional fishermen's neighbourhood, Duanes de la Mar, still conserves its narrow streets and white-washed houses. The symbolic Church called "Iglesia de la Mare de Déu de Loreto" rises high in the heart of the port. Inaugurated in 1967, it is an example of avant-garde religious architecture. In its Promenade, we find the Casa del Cable, which is now an exhibit hall. A pleasant walk around the fishing port provides a close-up glimpse of the town's traditional maritime activity.

Outside these city districts, there are other important buildings such as the windmills in La Plana area, which date back to the 19th century, the Sanctuary: Ermita del Calvario and Santa Llúcia, the Ambolo and Portitxol watchtowers or the Castle: Castell de la Granadella, the Convent: Monasterio de la Virgen de los Ángeles, the bridge: "pont del Llavador" or the typical grape-raisin drying facilities called "riu-raus" and "haies".

We invite you to participate in our rich history by means of the Dramatized Guided Tours and Visits which allow to relive to our exciting past.

DISCOVER OUR CHARMS

The open and participatory character of our citizens is evident in our numerous deeply-rooted popular festivities and Mediterranean traditions. The holiday calendar begins with the festivities in honour of "Jesús Nazareno", between the end of April and early May.

The Summer is welcomed by the St. John's Fire Festival (Fogueres de Sant Joan) whose most magical moment in Xàbia shines on the traditional Night of St. John's Fire Festivities called "Nit dels Focs", declared a Holiday of Tourist Interest. At the end of July, there are elegantly spectacular "Moors and Christian" parades which invade the streets of Duanes de la Mar.

The Summer concludes with the Festivities in honour of the "Virgen del Loreto", with their popular "bous a la mar" (running the bulls into the sea) in the first week of September.

Not to forget other small celebrations or popular holidays, perhaps not as spectacular but very endearing and deeply rooted, such as the maritime procession of the "Virgen del Carmen" on 15th of July, or the Portitxol festivities, both in August and the Pilgrimage to Santa Lucía on the 13th of December.

CULTURE ALL YEAR ROUND

Xàbia invites you to the exciting world of arts, music, cinema, dance, etc. and offers a varied program of cultural events during the entire year.

Music is particularly important thanks to the Xàbia Jazz and Xàbia Folk Music Festivals which have become one of the leading references of these genres in the Spanish panorama. Art also has a visible presence in the numerous and diverse exhibits which take place in the town's exhibit spaces and galleries.

OUR FLAVOURS

Gastronomy is one of Xàbia's premium attractions. Our rich culinary tradition provides a wide variety of delicious dishes which allow you to sample the succulent products of our land and sea.

This rich gastronomy, whose purity is still preserved in family homes today, can also be enjoyed in the extensive range of local cuisine offered by its select restaurants where you may taste the main dishes of Mediterranean cuisine comprised by fish, seafood and rice dishes.

You may also acquire local products in our local shops which are authentic delicacies for the palate and display our Mediterranean essence, distinguished by the GASTROXÀBIA trademark.

TAKE A BREAK

Enjoy the peace and quiet of our beautiful spots, a dinner party among friends on the seaside, a stroll along the busy Arenal beach, an afternoon shopping spree, a cocktail with friends in the beach's numerous terraces and refreshment stands, etc. Spend a lovely weekend and you will discover the unlimited possibilities which Xàbia offers for relaxation, leisure and entertainment.
